

MEET YOU IN THE MORNING

(Brad Kilman)

I'll meet You in the morning, when everyone is sleeping

I'll meet You in the evening, when my soul is tired

I'll listen for Your voice, I'll wait to know Your presence

I'll listen for Your voice, I'll wait to hear Your song

Every day Your name is on my lips

Every day Your song is in my heart

Every day Your name is on my lips

Every day Your mercy holding me up

I will praise You in the morning

I will praise You all day long

I will praise You in the evening

I will sing to You a new song

Oh my God, You hold my heart inside Your hands

I will trust You even when I don't understand
